

Percentage of Low Born Weight infants varies from state to state and District of Columbia has highest value.

High percentage of twins or triplets in DC (2.76%) is a possible reason for the high percentage of low birth weight in DC.